

A periodic newsletter of the H&I Committee of CoDA

In an effort to stay connected and support the fellowship, CoDA's Hospitals and Institutions Committee is using this periodic newsletter to communicate what it is working on and to share ways you can help the co-dependent who still suffers within institutions.

What H&I has done:

Since January, 2012, H&I has handled 65 letters from inmates from 19 different institutions, 12 email inquiries from individuals and institutions, and responded to them all. We have sent 58 Co-Dependents Anonymous books, 6

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions Workbooks, and filled 8 requests for other CoDA literature.

We have updated the Books for Inmates and Institutions (BFII) Program and updated that part of the CoDA website. Anyone desiring to donate money to be used to purchase Co-Dependents Anonymous books (full version) to be sent to inmates requesting them may do so using the following link: http://www.coda.org/service/Hi\_Donation%20and%20process.pdf . CoDA matches dollar for dollar each donation (which is considered a Seventh Tradition donation) to this program. For $8 donated, 2 books will be added to the inventory of books available to be sent to inmates requesting them. The donor can also designate an institution to receive the books.

Did you know:

That we receive requests from inmates for sponsors? Currently CoDA has no resources to respond positively to these requests. So far this year we have had three such requests. We are actively pursuing plans to remedy this.

That we have already had a wonderful initial response to the updated BFII program? H & I is grateful to our Higher Power for nine donations from groups and individuals totaling $1,046 to this program this spring. That will make available over 260 copies of the Co-Dependents Anonymous Books to be distributed to codependents who still suffer and for whom it would otherwise not be accessible.

Opportunities for service:

The CoDA Hospitals and Institutions Committee is looking for individuals who would be willing to help develop a sponsoring program for inmates (setting up the guidelines for doing such service).
